<sup>1</sup> Arcapita Bank B.S.C.(c) and the other parties to the Order appealed from, which is dated November 21, 2013, were chapter 11 debtors, represented by Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP at the time of the underlying briefing. The Gibson Dunn firm is listed as “Counsel for the Debtors” in the Order. By Notice of Appearance filed and dated previously, on September 18, 2013, Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP entered an appearance in the above-captioned chapter 11 proceedings as counsel of record for parties including Arcapita Bank B.S.C.(c), the new holding companies, and certain of their affiliates. Accordingly, the Appellant will serve the Notice of Appeal on both the Gibson Dunn firm and the Milbank firm.
