title 28 of the United States Code; and the Court being satisfied that notice of this Application and the opportunity for a hearing on this application was appropriate under the particular circumstances and no further or other notice need be given; and the Court being satisfied, based on the representations made in the Application and the Sedigh Declaration, that Conway MacKenzie does not hold or represent an adverse in connection with the cases, and that Conway MacKenzie is a "disinterested person" as such term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code; and the Court having determined that the relief sought in the Application is in the best interests of the Ad Hoc Noteholder Group, the Debtors, their creditors, and all parties in interest; and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Application and the Sedigh Declaration, and at the hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

4. Conway MacKenzie shall apply for compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with the chapter 11 cases in compliance with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules, Local Bankruptcy Rules, any case-specific fee protocols approved by the Court and the Administrative Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for Professionals entered by this Court, and any other applicable procedures and orders of the Court.

5. The Ad Hoc Noteholder Group and Conway MacKenzie are authorized to take all actions they deem necessary and appropriate to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order in accordance with the Application.

6. For the avoidance of doubt, entry of this Order is without prejudice to the rights of the Creditors' Committee and the Debtors to contend that work done by Conway MacKenzie (including, but not limited to, work listed in the Application) was done in contravention of the Settlement Order, as beyond the scope listed in the Settlement Order.

7. The terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

8. During the course of these bankruptcy cases, this Court has and shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or relating to the interpretation or implementation of this Order.
